Sir Wakefield Decr 7h 1800.

Theſe few lines comes unto you, as being a Juſtice of the Peace to his Majeſty King George, to warn you of the Impending danger which is now hanging over your heads' (that is not you alone but all thoſe in this Town who withſtands our oppoſition) For we have now waited a long time in vain in hopes that the Parliament would have done ſomthing for us

But we are now bound in one determination never to reſt ourſelves till we have brought many to their graves unexpectedly.

We have all clapt our hands In this town and Neighbourhood to a Paper to the amount of Seven hundred with Two hundred and nearly 70 Pieces of Muſkets, and 4 Hundred Pikes, ſwords &c.

So I conclude that this town will ſoon be In Ruins. So no more at Preſent.

Sir, Wakefield 14 December 1800.

Remember O Remember theſe fatal times When death itſelf is almoſt our Portion but as ſure as the Almighty liveth we will revenge. for damn your old Methodiſt foul we will bring it down you a Conſtable damn your eyes you the devil if you do ſtint us to a quartern loaf take care of your life damn King George the third and Billy Pitt may hell be their Portion for ever and ever damn your Red herrins Potatoes and you and all that have any thing to do with it May England fall like dew to the ground and Jacobings ever floriſh you ſhall hear from me again next Week I had not time this is only half. from Yours &c. &c.

Direct for me at &c. &c.
